

President's Message

I am so looking forward to being together on April 7th for lunch, cupcakes, and yes, we will provide water and coffee. Come, visit from 11a to 1p, and celebrate our new officers and their installation. Joanne Walen will be with us to conduct the installation.

I also want to thank each of you for your participation in our meetings this season by ZOOM. It has been a challenging year, but we have held it together which says a lot about our group fortitude.

I am proud to be a member of the East Mesa Branch of AAUW. The women who have gone before us to form us, and the women who will come after us are all part of the fabric we create together. We are like a Heritage Quilt—small scraps of fabric from many garments, stitched together to make a whole. We are stronger together than any single piece of fabric.

Gratefully Yours, Sandra Lackore

"Normal Day, let me be aware of the treasure you are. Let me learn from you, love you, savor you, before you depart. Let me not pass you by in quest of some rare and perfect tomorrow. Let me hold you while I may, for it will not always be so."

DIVERSITY AND INCLUSION APRIL 12

The April meeting will examine the new PBS series "The Black Church" presented by Henry Louis Gates, Jr. This historical perspective on the Black Church speaks volumes to the Black History experience in America. If you have not been part of the group previously and would like to participate please contact Sandra or Betsy.

Mary Linnemann has led us in our postcard campaign as we write our legislators to protect the Invest in Education Initiative and to prevent voter suppression bills from passing at the Arizona legislature.

We will continue our postcard campaign by supporting legislation to extend and enhance the work of the Study Committee on Missing and Murdered Indigenous People. We will also advocate for the Reauthorization of the Violence Against Women Act (VAWA) at the federal level and for domestic violence legislation being proposed by The Arizona Coalition Against Sexual and Domestic Violence at the state level.

If you are interested in joining the Diversity and Inclusion Interest Group, contact Sandra Lackore at cdlackore@aol.com or Betsy Flaten at katperson@msn.com.

Heretic: The Mary Dyer Story. For those of you who remember this fantastic presentation in November 2019, and for any new members who would like the experience, Jeanmarie's play is now available on YouTube. In the interest of diversity, the play is being signed in ASL, but the voice is that of the playwright Jeanmarie (Simpson) Bishop. If you recall, we were prevented from hearing/seeing Jeanmarie perform because of illness, so this is your opportunity (if you like) to hear her in person, even though it's virtual. To hear Jeanmarie speak about Mary Dyer, check out this link:

https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=vmahOKuwAXs We also supported the Arizona Theatre Matters with a grant in 2019. Here is the link for the performance:

If the link won't take you to the page, please copy and paste it into your browser.

Joanne Walen

I asked Bev to give us her vitae so we would have a better understanding of her life experience. True to her nature, she was concise. I just want to add I was pleased to learn that she was also from Massachusetts (note her nursing degree was obtained in Worcester MA, the town next to where we will be spending our summers). I know you will all welcome her warmly when she is installed President on April 7. --Sandra

For the good of the order. . .

1) AAUW ELECTIONS. Soon AAUW members will vote on a proposed change to the national Bylaws recommended by the Board of Directors and the Governance Committee. This change would eliminate the degree requirement for membership as it explicitly denies access for those without college degrees. AAUW's mission is to advance gender equity, and the current policy is exclusionary.

Voting will take place online via the email on file with National AAUW beginning April 7 and closing May 15 unless a member sends a specific request for a paper ballot. More information is available on the National AAUW website at https://www.aauw.org/resources/member/governance-tools/national- election/open-membership-toolkit/. If you can't click the link, copy and paste it into your browser.

2)EAST MESA BRANCH STRONG: The 2021-2023 Board will be installed on April 7 with terms starting July 1. While the board assumes responsibility for the branch's business obligations, committees such as membership, program, and scholarship, also need volunteers to bring new ideas and energy into their initiatives. Volunteering, whether board positions or committees, is a key component to maintaining a strong, healthy and vibrant branch as you each have skills and ideas to contribute. Contact a member on the board or committee Chair for more information.

Volunteer and let's all work together to empower our East Mesa branch to be the best.
