

AAUW Arizona Legislative Day 2022
“What Influences Legislators’ Voting Behavior”
Lauren Kuby, Kristen Mayes, Thomas Collins and Jodi Liggett
February 1st
10:00 AM by Zoom

Please register by 1/30/22 at Noon!

<https://forms.gle/3ENj4wtvuVp27swm9>

Lauren Kuby, Tempe AZ Councilmember

As a Tempe councilmember, she has led Tempe's efforts for social, economic, and environmental justice, including equal pay, earned sick days, affordable housing, climate action planning, government transparency, and campaign-finance reform.

Kris Mayes, Former Member of the Arizona Corporation Commission

Is a reporter and lawyer who is a Professor of Practice at Sandra Day O'Connor College of Law and a former member of the Arizona Corporation Commission.

Thomas Collins, Executive Director

The Arizona Citizens Clean Election Commission is a five-member board that administers and enforces Arizona's Clean Election Act. As Executive Director, he is responsible for the day-to-day operations of the board including its education and campaign finance programs.

Jodi Liggett, AAUW AZ Policy Consultant

Jodi is the founder of the Arizona Center for Women's Advancement. The first think tank by and for Arizona Women that provides information and advocacy to women working to improve their communities. She is an experienced public policy professional with experience in government, nonprofits, and private industry.

For questions please contact Sara Schmitt at csauwaz@gmail.com