March, 2022

Next Meeting – Wednesday, March 2, 2022

We will gather again at 1:00 – no food or drinks; masks are required!!

Meeting starts at 1:30

The speaker for the meeting will be Dr Nora Amavisca Reyes. Dr Reyes is the Vice Provost of the Mesa Community College (MCC) Red Mountain Campus. She earned her Bachelor and Master's degrees in Education at Arizona State University. She also earned a Doctorate in Education focusing on Curriculum Instruction and Bilingual Instruction.

Dr Reyes started her educational journey as a second-grade Bilingual Teacher. She joined the faculty of MCC in 1997. She is known for her strategic planning and mentoring of both staff and students. She has been recognized with awards for her dedication and expert knowledge including the Ronald McDonald House Charities Excellence and the League of Latino American Outstanding Latino Educator.

"The reason I made women's issues central to American foreign policy, was not because I was a feminist, but because we know that societies are more stable if women are politically and economically empowered."

Madeline Albright, former Secretary of State.

Saturday April 2, 2022 Celebration of Scholars

Saturday, April 2nd is our end of the year luncheon and will be a celebration of our Scholars.

Doors will open at 10:30 – jewelry will be available.

Program will start at 11:00

☞The luncheon will have a Paris flair with a lunch provided by our Chef and macaroons for dessert. At our general meeting on March 2nd Judy Shehanian will have a sign-up sheet for those interested.

☞If you would like to purchase a copy of 'Paris is Always a Good Idea' the price is $10, discounted from $16.

☞If you won't be at the March meeting please let Judy Shehanian know if you will be attending in April and if you want a book.

☞The Scholars will be receiving a copy of the book compliments of Barbara Peters at Poisoned Pen Bookstore in Scottsdale.

☞The lunch is provided free of charge to you and the Scholars. If you have dietary restrictions, please contact Joanna Larson 734-649-3893.

Thanks to all who have worked so hard on our Scholarship Luncheon.
