

January General Meeting
January 4, 2023 – 1:00 p.m.

Dress For Success Scholar Luncheon –
February 18, 2023

- Meeting will start at 1:00; refreshments and conversation – 12:45.
- Our speaker this month is Jodi Liggett. She is the founder of the Arizona Center for Womens' Advancement. Jodi is a public policy expert having worked in both the Democratic and Republican administrations. She served as Executive Director of Planned Parenthood.
- Jodi has a BA degree in Political Science, and a law degree.

The Scholar Luncheon is presented in collaboration with the Dress For Success Phoenix (DFSP). Mary Crawford, Director, will be the speaker. Her passion is to help women successfully enter and navigate the job market. Over her 20+ years with the organization, she has participated in national panels for the Professional Women's Group and conducted housing and workforce development seminars across the US. Mary has received numerous awards and achievements.

The program will also feature our scholars' wearing outfits provided by DFSP, which will provide the professional appearance needed for job interviews and work. Once employed, our scholars can visit the DFSP Boutique to receive additional clothing at no charge and access career services. The Career Center is a life-long service.

The Luncheon is open all LW residents and non-residents. This event will be a great opportunity for all generations to co-mingle with the scholars.

Tickets to the luncheon ($35 per person) are available at the Leisure World Recreation Office. Includes the Dress for Success presentation and lunch. Luncheon held in the Hopi/Pima Rooms – Rec. 2 – doors open at 10:30 a.m.
